NEW ANNEXATION BILL IS PREPARED

Substitute for One-Sided Grab Scheme That Was Rushed Through the Senate Recently.

The following is the substitute formulated by C. N. Kirkbridge, H. A. Mason and Franklin Swart to take the place of the Amendment No. 66, which has been slipped through the senate and was loosely drawn and not satisfactory as affecting this county. Some minor changes will be made in the document as here presented:

Amended Senate Constitutional Amendment No. 66, by striking out all of Section 2a thereof and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

Section 3a. The City and County of San Francisco and the County of San Mateo may be consolidated into one city and county, under the name of the City and County of San Francisco; provided that a majority of the qualified electors of said City and County of San Francisco and a majority of the qualified electors of said County of San Mateo freeholders' charter for the government of the consolidated counties, any portion or portions of the present County of San Mateo not less than thirty-six square miles in area may be excluded from such consolidated county and may be annexed to any contiguous county in any such manner as the Legislature by special act may provide and the Legislature shall enact such law at its first session held after the approval of this amendment by the voters of the State. Such exclusion of territory shall not become effective, however, until the freeholders' charter adopted as herein provided for shall be approved by the Legislature. In case it has been determined that any territory is to be excluded from the County of San Mateo and annexed to a contiguous county, the voters residing in such excluded territory shall not be entitled to vote on the question of the adoption of the freeholders' charter. Except as herein otherwise provided, this section shall be self-executory.

BATTLE AGAINST FEATHERED PEST INAUGURATED TODAY

The war on predatory birds and animals in this county has begun and is being prosecuted with vigor. During the past five months over 300 bobcats and coons have been exterminated, the greater number by the Spring Valley Water Company, and the work is going on actively. This movement was inaugurated on the suggestion of the State Game Association and is state wide.

Saturday next war will be declared against the bluejay, the most predatory of birds, the enemy even of its own kind, because it kills the young and destroys the eggs of the other birds. The birds are now nesting and very soon the quail will be laying, and many of the young of these birds will be destroyed by the despised bluejay unless he is first put out of the way.

Next Saturday the war of extermination will begin and be continued for ten days. Bert Smith, the game warden of Halfmoon Bay and his assistants will have charge of the huntmen on the coast-side, and Judge Lampkin and his assistants will act in a similar capacity on the side of the county. At the end of the period those gentlemen will receive evidence and decide who has the best record and the winner will be presented with a valuable shotgun by Hull Bros. of this city.

Much interest is being taken in the contest by sportsmen throughout the county and it is expected that at the end of the ten days the jay family in this county will be nearly wiped out.

COUNTY BOOSTERS PLAN BIG BANQUET AT SEQUOIA

At the meeting of the County Development Association, held at San Mateo last week, Rev. W. A. Brewer, president of the organization since its formation in April, 1911, informed the Board of Governors that he would no longer be able to fill the office of president, owing to the pressure of his private interests.

When it was found that Dr. Brewer could not be induced to serve another term as president of the Association, nominations were made for the various offices, resulting in the election of the following: For president, H. C. Tuchsens of Redwood City; for vice president, M. B. Johnson of Monterey; for treasurer, S. D. Merk of Burlingame; sergeant-at-arms, D. G. Doubleday of Millbrae, and for secretary, F. L. Ekwad of San Mateo.

A committee has been appointed by the boosters to look into the matter of holding the annual banquet of the Association at the new Sequoia Hotel, recently opened in this city.

FIREMAN SERIOUSLY HURT WORKING WITH DEPARTMENT

Tuesday afternoon an alarm of fire from box 31 called the department to the Saunders' place on the county road. Some children playing with matches set fire to a large barn and soon it was a mass of flames. By hard work the firemen saved the lower portion of the building, getting three streams upon the blaze. For a time it was feared that the handsome dwelling would also be consumed on account of the intense heat, but a fresh wind drove the flames in a direction where they could do no damage. The upper story of the barn was burned off but the lower part was saved and the building can be repaired.

There was considerable furniture belonging to Mrs. Sanders stored in the upper story and this was also destroyed. The damage to the building is estimated at $500. When the fire was almost quenched, B. L. Werder, city electrician, was injured by a fall from the upper floor of the barn, where he was guiding one of the hose nozzles. The force of the water overbalanced him and he fell backwards to the lower floor, striking on his shoulders. He was immediately taken to his home and Dr. Ross summoned, when an examination showed that no bones were broken, but that the patient had received a severe shaking up. It is expected that Werder will be about again in a few days.

ACTING WITHIN ITS RIGHTS.

That there was no hesitancy among the members of the California Legislature in exhibiting their displeasure with the attempted interference of the President in their conduct of local legislation is not a matter of wonder. Nor has the President and his advisors just cause to complain of the action taken. In the face of his assertion that it was the right of the State to legislate as it saw fit concerning its internal affairs, it was little less than presumption on the part of President Wilson to attempt to influence such action.

While we have but little sympathy with that doctrine of state's rights which in time past was a leading tenet of the Democratic creed, there seems to be no question but the control of its internal affairs is certainly within the jurisdiction of the law making power of the state. With this premise, it is certainly within the right of California, or any other state, to determine the ownership of its lands—the very foundation of its communal existence—and this without National interference.

The people of the State of California desire that their lands should remain as an heritage to their citizenship. In the demand that the ownership of none of these lands should pass to an alien race, with whom her people cannot assimilate, they are but exercising the God given right of self protection. Nor is the law as framed any too broad in its scope. While the "little brown man" may be the one most affected just at this time, there are other peoples who come within the purview of the act who are equally objectionable.

PREPARATIONS COMPLETED FOR ANNUAL FLORAL SHOW

Everybody is going to it. To what? To the Redwood City Woman's Club carnival, to be given in this city May 8, 9, and 10, Thursday evening, Friday afternoon and evening and Saturday afternoon and evening of next week. Preparations are being made for a more elaborate event than that given a year ago. There will be many new and attractive features this year and as a whole the carnival will be a pretty and enjoyable event as well as a notable exposition of this city's floral beauty.

Thursday evening there will be a grand automobile parade and the giving over to the Woman's club the key to the city for two days and nights of fun and carnival, which will include the numerous diversions planned by the club committee and the Board of Trade.

For the automobile parade on Thursday evening it is urged that everyone enter their machine. They may be decorated or not.

Friday afternoon will be one of music under the able direction of Professor W. B. Bartlett of San Francisco. In the evening artists from the city and surrounding country have promised their support.

On Friday afternoon at the musical given under Prof. W. B. Bartlett, refreshments will be served by the choral section, free of charge. The choral has done splendid work under his direction and is one of the live issues of the club.

On Saturday afternoon there will be the annual children's floral parade, something to which every child is looking forward with great anticipation. Thanks to the generosity of the public, this year more prizes than ever will be offered.

After the parade a "Fairy Dreams" will be given by sixty children, well trained. It is hoped that the mothers of those children who take part in the afternoon performance will also permit them to take part in the parade and help their schoolroom win the prize.

The committee appointed from the Board of Trade composed of Guy P. Hull, P. P. Chamberlain and A. D. Walsh, have worked untiringly with Mrs. Baird to make this carnival one to be remembered in the history of Redwood. They have taken for their motto "Boost Redwood" and it behooves every citizen and merchant to do their share in advertising the carnival of May 8, 9 and 10th.

Those desiring carnival pennants advertising the town may purchase them at Marcus' department store or on the street Thursday evening for 25 cents each or five for $1. The prizes offered for the flower parade on Saturday afternoon will be exhibited in "Lloyd's" candy store window Saturday morning. Special prizes will be offered for any original features in the parade. Babies may enter the parade but must be accompanied by a child, not by an adult.

ing good from Thursday, May 8th to the 12th.

Induce all your friends to take advantage of the rates to see the garden spot of the peninsula and also to visit the carnival.

NEWS GATHERED FROM THE COUNTY

Interesting Notes Picked Up By Hustling Reporters in the Country Districts.

SAN BRUNO NOTES.

Lest you forget, attention is again called to the Firemen's dance to-night at Green's hall. A splendid time is assured to all who attend. The cause is a worthy one and the price of admission, 25c, should be the means of filling the hall whether one dances or not.

The Ladies' Improvement Club have taken up with the Railroad people the question of lighting up the depot and its dangerous exit. The human toll of death at this point should be sufficient argument for this long delayed and much needed protection.

Thomas McConnell has been in Sacramento during the past two weeks representing the Shipwright Carpenters' union of which he is president, to have a bill put through the legislature favoring the state ownership and construction of a drydock.

The mass meeting held at Carpenters' hall was crowded, showing conclusively that the people have taken up the question of incorporation in a serious light. W. J. Flynn, president of the affiliated clubs, presided. J. M. Colebrode of South San Francisco, C. N. Kirkbride of San Mateo and J. T. O'Keefe of Menlo Park were the speakers of the evening. The meeting was intended to be educational in character, showing the advantages, and disadvantages if any, to the question of incorporation. The speakers, from their long service and knowledge of municipal laws, were invited to meet the people of San Bruno. A large delegation of Loma Park residents also attended, as that enterprising community can plainly see that, to progress, something must be done in the way of incorporation. They, as well as the San Brunos, were well pleased with the manner in which the speakers dealt with the question, and enthusiasm has been marked up several notches. Many converts were made, and to all appearances open opposition has taken to the backwoods. It is submitted to the people there is no doubt that incorporation would go through with as large a majority as the bond issue, for the people now realize they can no longer stay the hand of progress. At the conclusion of the meeting the speakers were accorded a rising vote of thanks.

A mass of wreckage marks the mistaken course followed by an automobile driver at the South San Francisco crossing Sunday night. What might have been a $1500 machine was reduced to a mass of scrap iron worth nothing, thus a small fortune was swept away in an instant. The automobile on entering the gates, instead of passing across the tracks, turned to the left and proceeded down the tracks. After leaving the road crossing the machine became unmanageable among the rails. The occupants were compelled to leave it to its fate as an approaching train bore down upon it and pitched it from the tracks a complete loss.

SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO.

Under the auspices of the local Chambers of Commerce, a huge smoker and get-together meeting was held by the citizens of South San Francisco last Saturday evening at Metropolitan hall. The gathering, which was a decidedly enthusiastic one for local improvement, was attended by about 200 guests. A. T. Scott presided as toastmaster and speeches were made by W. J. Martin, Thos. L. Hickey and E. I. Woodman. The membership of the Chamber of Commerce is rapidly increasing and much interest is being manifested in local improvement.

Extensive improvements are being made to the Alpine Hotel. Additions are being made to the building in order to increase the accommodations of the hotel and the exterior of the building is being decorated.

At the last meeting of the Chamber of Commerce a movement was inaugurated for the installation by the city of a fire alarm system.

The drill team of South City Aerle, F. O. E., is arranging for a benefit ball to be given on the evening of June 7th.

SAN MATEO AND BURLINGAME.

On Wednesday of next week the citizens of Burlingame will vote on the proposed bond issue of $25,000 for the building of a new city hall and municipal building. The indications are that the bonds will be approved by a large majority.

W. L. Gott of San Francisco was the lowest bidder for the erection of the new building for the Burlingame school district, his bid being $31,223. This does not include the heating system, for which the lowest bid was $3,997.

The trustees of the San Mateo high school are considering plans for the erection of an additional manual training building. If the new building is erected it will be for the accommodation of a training department in metal working. The plan under consideration is to provide for a reinforced concrete building which, with its equipment, would cost about $12,000.

At a mass meeting of the citizens of Burlingame last Saturday evening preliminary steps were taken for the permanent organization of a local board of trade. H. F. Miller was chosen temporary president and John F. Davis temporary secretary, and a committee consisting of H. R. Tyler, S. D. Merk, J. R. Murphy, E. S. Verrill and J. C. Beard was appointed to prepare plans for the permanent organization. It is expected that permanent organization will be effected at a meeting to be held on Saturday evening of this week.

FROM THE COAST SIDE.

F. E. Nelson has resigned his position as superintendent of the Halfmoon Bay Light & Power Co. and has removed with his family to San Francisco.

Will Silva is building an addition to his Halfmoon Bay residence. Mrs. A. Pillman is having plans prepared for the erection of a number of portable cottages on her Charles Mosconi, of Halfmoon Bay, the Grand Outside Sentinel of the Native Sons, will be a candidate for the office of Inside Sentinel at the Grand Parlor which will meet at Oroville this month. Mosconi is one of the most enthusiastic members of the order and deserves promotion. He will be strongly supported by the delegates from this county.

Mrs. Clayton Caldwell, who has been at Paraiso Springs for several weeks, has returned to her home.

The work of installing electric lights on the streets has been nearly completed.

Laura Emmett and F. B. Sherman were the winners of the prize at the whist party given by the club last week. Those affairs are the source of much social pleasure.

COUNCIL ORDERS PLANS FOR STREET IMPROVEMENT

Lighting System to be Extended to Include All Parts of City.

With Chairman Merrill out of the city and Trustee Hynding ill, the adjourned session of the city council Wednesday evening was attended by but three members of the board. While there were quite a number of spectators in the lobby, the attendance was not as is usually the case when matters concerning street improvements are to come up for consideration—a probable indication that the way is now cleared for the completion of the preliminary preparation for the extensive work of the summer, for which but little time remains.

In the absence of the chairman, the council was called to order by Clerk Plump. On motion of Trustee Hahr, Trustee Sampson was named for temporary chairman, and the business for which the session was primarily held was quickly disposed of.

A number of residents of Dingee Park who were present were given a hearing and urged the claims of that section of the city for consideration in the extension of the street lighting system. After listening to the views of the delegation, they were informed by Trustee Deleau that before action was taken it was the intention of the trustees that all sections of the city were to be considered and as far as possible given the benefit of lights, that in fact it was the desire of the council that the entire city should be provided with lights. In order that all residents might have an opportunity of considering the accommodations to be provided it is intended that before action is taken the plans of extensions to be made are to be placed on exhibition where they will be accessible to all and criticism will be invited.

Jens Hanson addressed the council and suggested several plans for increasing the efficiency of the flood gates at the Broadway bridge. He outlined a plan which, in his opinion, might at a small cost provide for a more thorough flushing of the creek, thus eliminating much of the disagreeable odor and at the same time removing to a considerable extent the tendency to gather obstructions. He was informed that the suggestions made would be given careful consideration in the making of future plans.

A resolution was adopted directing the city engineer to prepare plans and specifications for the construction of the concrete curbing and sidewalks in the district included in the district outlined for these improvements at the last meeting of the council.

City Engineer Sears was also instructed by resolution to prepare plans and specifications for the improvement of East Bradford street from Washington to Main. This improvement is to include the construction of concrete curbs and sidewalks and the laying of oil macadam pavement.

Plans and specifications were also ordered for the construction of sewers in the contemplated street improvement district.

Under another resolution submitted by the city attorney, the engineer was authorized to prepare plans and specifications for the oil macadam pavement in the district decided upon for street improvement. It is expected that these plans will be completed in time for presentation for the regular meeting next Monday evening, when final action on the resolution of intention ordering the work will be acted upon.

At the suggestion of Chief Winter of the fire department, the city clerk was directed to advertise for bids for furnishing 600 feet of cotton rubber lined fire hose for use of the department.

LOCAL FORESTERS TO HAVE SPLENDID HOME

Plans are Completed for Handsome New Building for Court Madrone.

The Redwood City order of Foresters of America, Court Madrone, No. 158, will start during this month the erection of their new hall on the corner of Phelps and Maple streets.

Estimates are now being taken at the office of J. J. Read, Broadway, Redwood City, and it is expected that the contract will be let sometime during the month. Bids opened on May 21 at 8 p. m.

The plans and specifications were prepared by Le Baron R. Olive, architect of Redwood City, associated with Warren Skillings of San Jose and show a two-story building, covering a ground area of about sixty-six by one hundred feet. The exterior of the building is treated in the Palladian manner and a very pleasing and dignified effect is produced by the arrangement of strong simple lines and well studied window openings. The front and main entrance of the building is on Phelps street and is marked by a columnar portico surmounted by a balcony. The building is to have cement plastered walls and a reinforced asphalt felt roof.

The building is to have a concrete foundation but no basement.

On entering the building, a few low steps lead into a spacious vestibule and stair hall which is flanked on both sides by the ample dressing rooms for men and women which are provided with well appointed lavatories and hat and cloak rooms. A stair case six feet in width leads up on each side of the lodge room above. At the right of the hall is a ticket office handsomely furnished. From the hall directly in front of the main entrance are large doors leading into the dance hall which is fifty by seventy feet in area and fourteen feet in height. This hall is to have a hard maple floor, carefully finished and waxed. The wall on the Maple street side is adequately lighted by well placed windows and around the whole room are comfortable benches built in for the convenience of the dancers. The floor above is so arranged that there are no posts or columns to obstruct the room, thus giving 3,500 square feet of unobstructed space.

At the left of the entrance on the side opposite to Maple street, is placed a gallery the whole length of the hall with platform gradually stepping up and prepared for rows of chairs which will seat about two hundred spectators who will have a splendid view over the whole floor. This gallery is also well lighted by windows in the exterior walls.

At the rear of the dance hall is a stage twenty feet in width by ten feet in depth with a curved proscenium arch handsomely ornamented in stucco. The stage is raised about three feet from the floor and well prepared for musicians or for other purposes. On either side of the stage are rooms for men and women, adapted for dressing rooms or other uses. The dance hall and gallery are well lighted by both ceiling and wall bracket, electrolights and a special study has been given to exits. From the gallery there are two, one at each end, directly to the outside besides the exit into the hall. From the hall there are three, one at each end and one on each side at the front opening direct on the outside.

The upper floor is divided into a large kitchen and collation room at the rear; a lodge room in the center; two large ante-rooms and a reception room; and the staircase hall at the front off of which are well appointed lavatories for men and women.

The two six-foot stair cases lead up one on each side from the first floor and land in the staircase hall above. From this hall are entrances to the lavatories, an exit through large ornamental glass doors to the balcony. At the right and left are large doors giving entrance into the two ante-rooms which are about twelve by twelve feet, well lighted both by natural and artificial light, and well furnished with lockers. Between these is the reception room. Large doors lead from each ante room into the lodge room which is forty-six by fifty feet in area and fifteen feet high. The roof is carried by trusses so that the whole space is unobstructed. The room is lighted by high windows, symmetrically placed on the exterior walls, and has a national reputation as an authority in international law.

A dog with an unknown owner came into town during the week wearing the regulation muzzle as recommended by Poundmaster Shine and a keen appetite for foul. He first proceeded to the chicken yard containing a number of prize Rhode Island Reds, of A. J. Carleton. The canine flirts with the prize beauties then looked at his muzzle. In his dilemma he sought the aid of a water faucet near by. Placing the muzzle at the projecting end of the faucet he pulled backwards and off came the annoying instrument. The dog smacked his lips and began at once to appease his sharpened appetite on Mr. Carleton's prize birds. After killing eight he suddenly thought that he might conclude the meal on a duck diet and sauntered across the street to William Warren's duck yard and there finished his meal on six thorough bred birds. Where the canine went afterwards it is not known, but as Menlo Park is a dry town he perhaps went to Palo Alto to quench his thirst. Mr. Carleton and William Warren have provided themselves with guns and if they only get a glimpse of the poultry thief he will be immediately dispatched by the dog spirit sent to a happy hunting grounds.

DOINGS ABOUT THE COUNTY OFFICES

Matters of General Interest to Litigants Culled from the Public Records.

New Actions in Superior Court.

J. Noble Jones has brought suit in the Superior Court against William Goldman to have a deed to lot 7, block 34, Reese Subdivision in Redwood City, declared to be a mortgage. The complaint alleges that the property in question is worth $4000, that on August 30, 1912 plaintiff gave a deed to the realty to defendant for a loan of $1500 with the understanding that the property should revert to Jones on a returning the money with interest. In fact it was agreed that the amount was to be paid by December 6, 1912. Jones asks that the deed be declared to be a mortgage and that he be given possession of the realty.

Louisa N. Ostwald has commenced an action in the Superior Court against E. F. Fitzpatrick, as executor of the last will and testament of Charles G. Ostwald, deceased, to quiet title to certain property of the estate located at Millbrae and San Francisco.

Dr. J. L. Ross has commenced an action in the Superior Court against W. Parker, son and Edward Hildebrand to recover the sum of $718.90 for professional services and cost of suit. Some months ago Edward Hildebrand in coming to Redwood City from his home at Woodside was run down by Lyon's automobile and was badly injured, being confined to the Huling Sanitarium for a long time. Hildbrand was laid up for several months and has not yet fully recovered from his injuries.

In view of the fact that Lyon was responsible, through carelessness, Hildebrand feels that he should pay all the doctor bills and other expenses attending his illness. The claim of Dr. Ross amounts to $267.50. Dr. Taggart $50, Dr. Williams Palo Alto $300, A. D. Walsh Co. $8.50, P. A. Ryan $5.40 and the Huling Sanitarium $87.50. All the claims have been assigned to the plaintiff. Mr. Lyon is a multi-millionaire who recently sold his home at Woodside to Walker Graves. Lyon was formerly mayor of Fresno. He is now traveling in Europe. It is just possible that Mr. Hildebrand will bring a suit against Lyon for damages for a large amount for the injuries he sustained through the alleged carelessness in running the machine down the Woodside grade at a high rate of speed.

Arthur L. Wilson has petitioned the Superior Court to have George A. Kertell appointed guardian of the person and estate of his wife, Josephine H. Wilson, an incompetent person. A son of the petitioner, Arthur L. Wilson Jr., was appointed guardian of his mother last December but he failed to qualify. The estate consists of income property which needs care.

 in the outside walls, and is artificially lighted with indirect lighting. A handsome wooden cornice runs completely around the lodge room about twelve feet from the floor and a continuous row of electric lights is hidden behind the cornice, the light being reflected over the room by the covered ceiling. The lights are controlled by a switch board placed near one of the stations by a Culter & Hammer "dimmer" which switches off a portion or all of the lights, or raises or lowers them. There is also a large room in the center of the lodge room and wall bracket lights at the several stations. A four-foot platform runs all around the room and at the center of each of the four sides are the stations for officers of the lodge. These stations are marked by handsomely ornamented rostrums and settings for the officers' seats. In the rear of the lodge room is a large collation room, twenty by thirty-seven feet furnished with six large dining tables and a well appointed kitchen with sink, range and lockers, etc.

An exit from both kitchen and collation room is provided, on to an outside platform which has a stairway directly to the ground outside the building. From this platform an iron stair leads to the roof of the building. The interior is plastered everywhere with hard wall and plaster and the wood work will be of Douglas fir, stained and waxed. All the ceilings will be covered. The plumbing will be first class in all respects and the necessary heating will be done by the "Rector" gas heating system. All rooms are to be thoroughly ventilated. Both stories are supplied with fire hose reels and drinking fountains both stories. Everything is included in the building to make it first class and right up-to-date.

Vehicle License Case Decided.

The following opinion has been rendered by Judge Buck in the proceedings to test the validity of the Burlingame hack ordinance:

This is a proceeding brought to determine the legality of a municipal ordinance of the City of Burlingame, this County.

As to the general purpose of the ordinance submitted to the Court I have no doubt but what the City of Burlingame thought its proper authorities can impose a license tax upon vehicles used in transacting business on its public streets. It is part of a system made use of in order that by the money thus raised the streets may be properly kept in repair. But this ordinance does not so read. But a person who keeps a vehicle in his stable and possibly never uses it on the street is taxed for license purposes. This the city may not do.

The vehicle is taxed for City, County and State purposes and there is no authority to levy another tax on it except it be for some purpose above indicated. I do not agree with the counsel for petitioners that the city is limited in the maintenance of its streets to the money derived from the poll tax and the position assumed here by him that a city of the sixth class is powerless to levy a license tax as herein attempted is in my opinion without merit.

An ordinance properly drawn would in my opinion fully cover the objections aired by petitioners and until such an ordinance is drawn and enacted the city is powerless in this matter. The prisoners in cases Numbers 4670 and 4671 are discharged.

April 28, 1913, Buck, Judge.

Marriage Licenses Issued.

Joseph Lyday, aged 26, Durant Oklahoma, and Theresa Obits, aged 23 San Francisco.

Large Tax Collections.

Out of a total of $167,000, taxes due of the second installment, Collector McSweney has collected approximately $156,000. This is a splendid record and it shows that the county tax gatherer is on to the job. Marshal Coleman has been equally busy in collecting of the city's taxes. Out of $10,000 due, there remains about $150 unpaid and the greater part of this amount will come in within a few days.
